FEAST OF CORPUS CHRISTI: Today we celebrate the Feast of Corpus Christi, when all Eucharistic Ministers will renew their commitment to Eucharistic service, during the 10.30 am Mass. We ask all Ministers to try to attend Mass in their home parishes, to avoid having to renew their commitment at a later date. There will be a meeting for all Eucharistic Ministers immediately after 10.30am Mass this morning.

Clare Dixon will speak about the life of Oscar Romero, whose centenary we celebrate this year. RISE Theatre will present a drama about this martyr of our own times. There will be talks from David Wells and Sr. Judith Russi. It includes prayer, liturgy, reflection, mime, discussion and music. It is an opportunity for our whole Diocesan family to come together to celebrate and to be encouraged in our faith, offering inspiring speakers for adults as well as activities for young people and children. See notice at back of church for full details.

DAY FOR LIFE: Today we celebrate human life and how it can be enriched by our human efforts. A retiring collection will be taken to enable the Church to fund the Anscombe Bioethics Centre (formerly the Linacre Centre), as well as projects that seek to care for life at every stage and in every condition. As we approach the 50th anniversary of the Abortion Act in October, we mourn the large annual number of abortions and continue to pray for the care and support of mothers and their children in the womb.
