SICK CLERGY: Please pray for Fr. James Doherty, who is very seriously ill. Please pray also for all our clergy who are indisposed or incapacitated.

PLEASE NOTE: There will be no Mass on either Wednesday or Saturday. Next Sunday Mass will be at the new time of 11.00am.

LADIES' GUILD: Fr. Kelly would like to say a great big thank you to the Ladies' Guild for the very generous cheque of £500, which they presented to him last week. The work they do is tremendous and we appreciate it enormously.

FRANK NEVIN RIP: We regret to announce the death of Frank Nevin, who lived in the parish during Fr. O'Brien's time. Frank's Requiem Mass will be held on Monday 1st February, in St. Peter's Church, Low Fell, at 10.30am. We extend our condolences to all Frank's family and invite everyone to say a prayer for Frank. May he rest in peace.

TIME TO SAY GOODBYE: As you all know, this is Fr. Brendan's last Sunday Mass in St. Anne's Parish. We hope that you will all join him in the hall after Mass for a glass of wine to wish him a happy, healthy and long retirement.

NEW PARISH PRIEST: As you all know, our beloved Parish Priest, Fr. Brendan, is leaving at the end of next week. Therefore, from Sunday, 3rd February our new Parish Priest will be Fr. Paul Zielinski, who will also continue to be Parish Priest of St. Augustine's, Leam Lane. We know that you will all make him feel very welcome and at home when he arrives to say Mass next Sunday.

FATHER KELLY WRITES: "THE LAST HOLY HURRAH": "We are coming to the end of six years and four months of working together. It has been a memorable, positive experience of working together. I will look back with fondest memories to all the musical masses and the inspired liturgies we have enjoyed together. You are the best working parish I have experienced and no, I did not say that of any of the other parishes I worked in! I am pleased, now that I am leaving St. Anne's, that it is strong and very likely to continue strong for the foreseeable future. It was a very supreme pleasure to work with you all and to share such hope ideals. Thank you immensely for allowing me to work with you and for your positive responses in so many ways. Should you manage to visit Ireland some time, do remember that there will always be a welcome at Holy Family Church, Galway City and the kettle will always be on the boil. You will not be offered much coffee in Ireland, but overwhelmed with tea. "Remember Mrs. Dole"! Thanks for putting up with so many of my idiosyncrasies and my poor jokes. Please God, we will meet again but, hopefully, before that final reunion in heaven. Bless you all. I leave early on Friday and hopefully, the weather will be kind.

SPUC: Thank you to everyone who contributed to the SPUC collection last Sunday. A total of £58.60 was raised for this extremely worthy cause. Thank you to everyone for your support and generosity.

A BIG 'THANK YOU': Margaret Wright would like to say "a 'big thank you' to everyone who helped me celebrate my 70th birthday and also for your lovely cards and good wishes; something to remember in my dotage! My granddaughter would also like to thank everyone at St. Anne's, who contributed to her fund-raising for the Little Princess Trust, which makes wigs for children with cancer. She raised over £400. God Bless."

UNCLAIMED RAFFLE PRIZES: Please note the following prizes from the recent Ceilidh have not yet been claimed; Blue tickets, numbers, 106, 315 and 782. Please see Goff Ellis to claim your prize.
