A service in St Mary's Cathedral on Sunday 19th May at 3pm –
'No Outsiders to His Love'.

It will be the culmination of Mental Health Awareness Week and draw attention to the importance of caring for and those living with mental health and emotional issues. The service will involve music, dance, reading and teaching, intended to highlight the dignity of our brothers and sisters whose mental and emotional health causes them pain and a lack of peace.

John Ingram
Priest and Martyr 1565 – 1594

A personal presentation of the life of the Gateshead martyr by Father Paul J Zielinski.
Book Launch is scheduled for Saturday 22nd June 2019 at 11.00 am. Pauline Books & Media Centre, St Mary's Cathedral, Newcastle. Bishop Robert will attend the launch.

The book provides the background to the tempest of the Protestant Reformation in England and its impact on the spiritual, social and cultural dimensions of society, including on Tyneside, in order to situate the coming into the country of the seminary priests like John Ingram, who had trained abroad and who had to live hunted lives in Elizabethan England, which had become a police state with an elaborate spy-network. The book encourages the general reader to delve more deeply into the findings of Professor Eamon Duffy and Clare Asquith, who argue for a more multi-dimensional reading of this period in English history, in contrast to the one-dimensional Protestant version of events in Tudor England. Some of John Ingram's letters and epigrams are included in the book, as well as a photocopy of his student entry and his signature in the Liber Ruba of the English College in Rome, courtesy of Professor Maurice Whitehead, the Schwarzenbach Research Fellow, acting as Archivist in the Archivum Venerabilis Collegii Anglorum de Urbe.
92 pages. £5-99. (UK postage and packing an extra £2-50)
