A PIOUS WILL

The late Joe Wiley left the sum of £1,000 (one thousand) as a pious bequest in favour of St Augustine's Catholic Church, Leam Lane, Felling.

May God reward him for his thoughtfulness and generosity.
May he rest in peace.

Grass roots support and a miracle or two will be needed going forward. Your support is needed.

Baptism Pastoral Support Programme 2022 for parents seeking Baptism for their children.

This is available every three months, in March, June, September, and December, involving three Tuesday evening sessions 7 pm to 8 pm, with Deacon Paddy and Denise Smith at St Augustine's Presbytery. This is followed up by a separate individual interview with Father Paul to discuss the requirements and the timing of any baptism.

The next series of talks starts on Tuesday 6th September.

John Ingram Partnership RCIA 2022-23

An initial meeting is to take place on Tuesday 13th September at 7.00

A PRAYER FOR PRIESTS

Gracious and loving God, we thank you for the gift of your priests.

Through them, we experience your presence in the sacraments.

Help our priests to be strong in their vocation.
Set their souls on fire with love for your people.

Grant them the wisdom, understanding,
and strength they need to follow
in the footsteps of Jesus.

Inspire them with the vision of your Kingdom.
Give them the words they need to spread the Gospel.

Allow them to experience joy in their ministry.
Help them to become instruments
of your divine grace.

We ask this through Jesus Christ,
our Eternal Priest. Amen

There is an old story about Jesus meeting a man who was crying at the side of the road.
When Jesus asked what was wrong, the man replied that he could not see. So, Jesus cured him. After a while, Jesus met another man who was crying, "I cannot walk," the man explained. So, Jesus cured him. Then Jesus met a third man who was crying, "I am a priest," the man said. So Jesus sat down and wept with him. Why would Jesus weep?

Pope Benedict XVI tells us that a priest "faces his Master's same fate." Like Jesus, a priest experiences the world's "incomprehension" of God, "indifference" toward God, and "rejection" of God. But the Pope goes on to explain that a priest also "experiences Christ's joys." Priests are consecrated in Christ, so they can speak and act in Jesus' name, celebrate sacraments, minister to those in need, and lead the faith community. Like Jesus, priests lay down their lives for those entrusted to them by the Father, following in the footsteps of the Lord. Only God can fully sustain a priest in his vocation, but Catholics can also provide everyday support and encouragement. Here are 5 things you can do to help your parish priest. 1. Pray for Your Priest. 2 Participate and Be Active. 3. Watch Your Expectations.
4. Be Prepared to Believe the Best. 5. Show Your Appreciation.

Jesus makes himself present to us in a special way through his priests – so whatever you do for your parish priest, you also do to the Lord. And whatever you do for the Lord helps to build the Kingdom of God right here on earth.
