CHRISTMAS PROJECT

We would like 350 pouches of sweets (Heroes, Celebrations or Quality Street) and 350 boxes of luxury biscuits. In the last few weeks, we collected 350 packs of toiletries by working together across our four parishes. Thank you so much! Together we can also achieve this second stage of the project. Please take a gift tag from the back of the church and return the sweets and biscuits by the 1st December.

CONGRATULATIONS

to Tharusha and Tishan who will be receiving their First Holy Communion this Sunday at St Peter's.

FOOD COOP

Dear Supporters,

This week, 98 people representing 61 families/couples and 37 single persons collected food from the Food Co-op. There was a steady stream of people throughout the session despite the bitterly cold weather. People were queuing from shortly after 8.00am and any hats and gloves we had were swiftly distributed.

Donations were gratefully received from several local churches, individual supporters, Saltwell Park Run, a primary school and Gateshead Food bank.

Thankyou for all the donations and to those who deliver them to Corpus Christi.

Today we were joined by a Mental Health Development Worker who arrived early and chatted to all the volunteers. She intends to return when appointments permit.

One of our volunteers has recently gained citizenship – a lengthy process. All the team congratulated him.

With thanks for your steadfast commitment,

Kath

Alcoholics Anonymous

There is a meeting of AA every week in the Parish Hall.

This is on Thursdays evenings and all are welcome
